

I support satellite radio and their ability to bring localized content to me. I feel the payment I make for these services are well worth it and shouldn't be up to the NAB to determine what can be broadcast. Please support XM's ability to provide this kind of programming.